WHAT IS THE STUDENT AMBASSADORS FOR INCLUSION PROGRAM?

Student Ambassadors are a group of students who are selected to promote and represent the universities where they study. This is a leadership program designed to develop and enhance the skills of students who are committed to promoting university education in a positive way. The Student Ambassador for Inclusion Program is a program open to students on a voluntary basis.

WHAT DO STUDENT AMBASSADORS DO?

- Student ambassadors provide a peer-to-peer perspective
- Student ambassadors offer their unique, first-hand experience. They give a real insight into what life as one of your students might be like, especially for potential students from disadvantaged groups
- Student ambassadors support with outreach and inclusion

WHY SHOULD I BE A STUDENT AMBASSADOR?

STUDENT AMBASSADORS ENJOY MANY BENEFITS:

- Develop and enhance professional skills, including leadership, public speaking, writing, marketing, social media, event planning, and public relations
- Improve personal development, including confidence, organization, time management, and team work
- Make connections with new and continuing students that last a lifetime
- Networking opportunities with Academic staff and alumni
- Earn volunteer hours
